

STRAWBERRIES

Load of Them

Preserve Today

while they are good and cheap

SOMERS BROS.

Jun 23d

NOTICE

Because of the Shannon Building fire I have been obliged to change my office to No. 21 Broadway, Wauregan House, where I shall be pleased to receive my former patients.

Office hours: 8-10 a. m., 1-2 and 6-8 p. m.

DR. GEO. R. HARRIS

may 2d

NOTICE

Dr. Frank C. Atchison

HAS OPENED OFFICES

at

25 Shetucket Street

Jun 12d

NOTICE

The best place to review the parade of July 4th and 5th is at the COLUMBIAN HOUSE. Apply there for rates for windows.

254d

"EVERY PROGRESSIVE MAN"

should order his Summer Suit here. You'll want it for the 25th. Choice line to pick from. Popular prices.

C. H. Nickerson, 128 Main St.

254d

MARY P. CLAPP

Embroidered Shirt Waists.

For the Graduate. Stamped Crepe Waists, Center-placed, etc.

WOMAN'S EXCHANGE, 237 Main St.

Phone Building. Telephone 556-2.

Jun 17d

George

Ehrets

Extra

Lager

On

Draught

Today

Wauregan House Cafe.

THE PARKER-DAVENPORT CO.,

Proprietors.

WE DO YOU A GOOD TURN

We never cause you anger. When you order a bottle of Wine or a bottle of Whiskey, or a bottle of Beer, you may be sure that you will get what you ask for at the proper price and not some cheap substitutes.

Schiller's Milwaukee Beer $1 per doz.

JACOB STEIN,

Telephone 25-3, 93 West Main St.

april 4d

Summer Millinery

MISS BUCKLEY'S, 308 Main St.

mar 26d

FUNERAL ORDERS

Artistically Arranged by

HUNT . . . The Florist,

Tel. 130. Lafayette Street.

Jun 16d

A. PECK, M. D.,

43 Broadway.

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

Shall be out of town from July 7th to August 4th, Saturdays excepted.

Jun 2d

The Newest Styles in

SUITS and OVERCOATS

We can supply you with the best in style and workmanship.

JOHN KUKLA,

Merchant Tailor, Franklin St.

april 2d

There is no advertising medium in Eastern Connecticut equal to The Bulletin for business results.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Thursday, June 24, 1909.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Ox-eyed daisies in bloom.

Some of the farmers have begun having.

The robins and the boys have their eyes on the cherry trees.

Several trolley parties of school children were out on Wednesday afternoon.

There will be the service of Holy Communion in the Episcopal churches today.

There will be no musical evening at the Halle club this week. Will give further notice—adv.

Several Connecticut Eagles are to attend the field day exercises of the combined New England series in Fitchburg, Mass., today (Thursday).

New awnings in the club colors, blue and white, now shade the windows of the Halle club. A powerful electric fan was installed in the restaurant on Wednesday.

Invitations to the tricentennial celebration of the discovery of Lake Champlain, which will be held on the lake next month, have been received by Norwich people.

J. C. Bushnell of Norwich, principal of the Farmington grammar school, has been engaged as principal of the grammar school at South Manchester at a salary of $1,500.

At Hamburg Mrs. M. E. Huntley's strawberry patch yielding well for a small one, from 16 to 24 quarts daily being picked from a setting, two years ago, of 200 plants of Stevens' Late Champion.

The first early cabbages were brought to market Wednesday by Benjamin F. Riet of Thetford, fine, big heads they were. Mr. Riet has raised and can of a family of cabbages planted this season.

Don't fail to attend the operetta and musical show at Olympic hall Friday night. Dancing free. Tickets, 55, 35 and 50 cents. Matinee 2:30. Children 10 cents. Adults 25c. Proceeds to St. Mary's parish rectory—adv.

Notices are being sent out for the coming session of the Camp Meeting association at the Plainville camp grounds. The session begins July 20 and ends August 3. Camp meeting Sunday will be observed August 1.

Eastern Connecticut priests will go to Norfolk Friday to attend the funeral of Rev. Dr. William Maher. Rev. W. J. Shanley of Danbury will be the preacher. Burial will be in South Norfolk, in the yard of the church.

The conference of the Connecticut Swedish Congregational ministers began Wednesday morning at the Naugatuck Congregational church, Naugatuck. In the evening the Rev. G. E. Felt of New Britain delivered an address.

The Connecticut association of Local Fire Insurance Agents will hold its annual meeting at the Danbury Country club, Lake Kenosia, today (Thursday). The committee of arrangements expects to entertain fifty agents from all parts of the state.

Graduates of St. Patrick's school met this week in the basement chapel to form an alumni association. Rev. Hugh Treanor presided at the meeting and generously promised to pay all expenses of the organization until it is well started. Temporary organization was effected, with Louis A. Andrews, president, and Miss Elizabeth Burke, secretary. Another meeting will be held June 30.

PARTY FROM WILLIAMTIC.

Seventy Members of Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association Dine at Wauregan.

On Wednesday evening at 8:45 there arrived by special electric from Williamticut 70 members of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association of that city, who came here for their eighth annual banquet at the Wauregan house. The joyous occasion was presided over by Mrs. J. H. H. after a few songs at 10:45 o'clock. The affair was arranged by Miss Margaret Maxwell, Miss Catherine Clifford, Miss Annie Hogan, Miss Agnes Hickey, Miss Nellie Donohue and Miss Catherine Leary and from the indications must have been a decided success.

MONTVILLE MAN ENDED

LIVE WITH PARIS GREEN.

Lawrence MacFarland Was Despondent Over Family Troubles.

On Wednesday afternoon shortly before 6 o'clock the death of Lawrence MacFarland occurred at the home of his son, in Montville, where he made his home. He had been ill for some time and ended his life by taking Paris green. His condition was discovered by his daughter-in-law, who informed his son and a doctor was secured as soon as possible, but he had passed away by that time. He was 70 years of age and for many years had been a resident of the town. His wife died about two years ago.

He is survived by five children—Mrs. Francis Rogers and John MacFarland of Montville, Mrs. Mary Sullivan of Fitchville, Thomas MacFarland and Mrs. Annie O'Grady of New London.

St. Joseph's Parochial School.

Closing exercises for St. Joseph's parochial school were held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the hall adjoining the school rooms at the church. A number of visitors enjoyed the songs and recitations by the children, both in English and Polish, as taught by their instructors, Albert Stefanski and Miss Hattie A. Cook. Creditable work was done by the children, showing commendable progress during the year. They were addressed with words of advice by Rev. J. J. Ambot, rector of that parish.

Service at Clark's Falls.

Archdeacon J. Eldred Brown of this city and Rev. W. E. Hooker of Poquonamuck will go to Clark's Falls, St. Johnsbury, Sunday afternoon, and hold a service at 2:30 o'clock. There are 150 people in that settlement, where there is a Seventh-day Baptist church, but no services are held there. This service will be in the line of an experiment and if there is sufficient encouragement regular services will be held there.

Advertising Car Left.

The second advertising car of the wild west circus left here on Wednesday evening. It is in charge of All Reilley who was for years with Barnum & Bailey, being an experienced man at the business, and for thirty miles around the country has been billed.

PERSONAL

E. H. Tibbitts was a guest of Representative Tibbitts at Hartford Tuesday.

James J. Dahill, "Steeple Jim" of Meriden, is spending several days in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Kind have returned from a visit to Providence and Newport.

Charles Booth and family of New London have opened their summer cottage at Quaker Hill.

Miss Faith Bolles of Hartford is the guest at a few days at Mrs. Herbert R. Branche of Lafayette street.

Michael Kenealy of Stamford has so far recovered from his illness as to be at the capitol Tuesday, where he was heartily greeted.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Flisk and daughter of Norwich recently visited their grandmother, Mrs. Louise Richardson of Ellington.

Rev. C. E. Bromley of Franklin, Me., formerly of Norwich, delivered the annual sermon for the Independent Order of Foresters, at Eastbrook, Me., on Sunday, June 20.

OBITUARY.

Prof. John S. Kraus.

The death of Prof. John S. Kraus occurred at his home in Lisbon Wednesday morning after an illness of over a year. Professor Kraus had not been well for the past fifteen months and passed peacefully away at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward Kraus was born in the little town of Spanch, in the province of Bavaria, Germany, 39 years ago the eighth of last December. He was the oldest son of George Seld and came of a family of talented musicians. His father and uncles were all well known for their ability in this art. After studying in the school of music, John determined to try his fortune in America, and at the age of sixteen he came to this country, where he remained for five years at about eleven o'clock.

John Seward